Collection Agent Appointment Agreement

Effective date of this Agreement: [Date]

This Agreement is by and between [Company Legal Name]

([Company]),

a [State], [Corporation / Partnership / Sole Proprietorship]

located at [Address]

[City], [State] [Zip Code]

AND [Agent's full legal name],

([Agent's abbreviated name]),

a [State], [Corporation / Partnership / Sole Proprietorship], located at [Agent 's Address].

Summary

[Company] and [Agent] agree that [Agent] will act to collect certain accounts receivable according to the following terms and conditions:

For valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

In this first section the Seller appoints the Collection Agent and the Agent's fee is then determined.

1. Appoint Agent

1. The Seller appoints the Agent to collect this Account Receivable from the Customer on behalf of the Seller. The Agent will be entitled to a contingent fee of [x]% of whatever amount of the Account Receivable is collected by the Agent, and payable to the Agent upon receipt of the collected amounts. The Agent is also subject to the following special instructions:

2. Special Instructions

- If the Seller wants to place certain restrictions on the Agent, such as "No lawsuits are to be filed without the Seller's prior written approval", they should be included in the following section.
- [List any special instructions]
- Xxx
- XXX

In this next section the Seller agrees to give the Agent all relevant information about the account(s) and the parties agree to protect each other for any wrongdoing by the other.

3. Indemnification

The Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless the Agent from any and all claims arising from the Account Receivable or the underlying contract between the Seller and the Customer. The Agent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Seller from any and all claims arising from the Agent's collection efforts. The Seller agrees to furnish the Agent all information required by the Agent in its collection efforts. The Seller agrees to notify the Customer of this Appointment.

4. General Provisions

- The General Provisions that follow are fairly standard. These provisions enhance the balance of the Agreement by defining certain common issues such as notice, assignment, legal remedies, waiver, and attorney fees, etc..
- 4.1 Independent Contractors. The relationship between both parties established by this Agreement is that of independent contractors, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to give either party the power to direct and control the day-to-day activities of the other. Neither party is an agent, representative or partner of the her party. Neither party shall have any right, power or authority to enter into any agreement for, or on behalf of, or incur any obligation or liability of, or to otherwise bind, the other party. This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to create an association, agency, joint venture or partnership between the parties or to impose any liability attributable to such relationship upon either party.
- You may or may not want to make this deal public at least limit that event by this agreement and work out if/how/when you want to do that later.
- 4.2 Publicity. Neither party will make any public announcement or issue any press release concerning the terms of this Agreement without the prior approval of both parties.
- You must decide which state governs this Agreement and where any legal action would be taken. Generally, it is your (company's) state of residence.
- 4.3 Governing Law & Jurisdiction. This agreement and the parties' actions under this Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of [State], without reference to conflict of law principles. The parties hereby expressly consent to the jurisdiction and venue of the federal and state courts within the state of [State]. Each party hereby irrevocably consents to the service of process in any such action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address set forth in the preamble of this Agreement, such service to become effective thirty (30) days after such mailing.
- This Agreement is intended to be the only Agreement, and that no other documents or communications are binding. Therefore, it is very important to make sure that everything [Company] and [Client] have agreed to is included in this Agreement. Otherwise, it is as if it was not agreed to.
- 4.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the attached exhibits, constitutes the entire Agreement between both parties concerning this transaction, and replaces all previous communications, representations, understandings, and Agreements, whether verbal or written between the parties to this Agreement or their representatives. No representations or statements of any kind made by either party, that are not expressly stated in this Agreement, shall be binding on such parties.
- Any changes to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by the party against whom that writing is to be used.
- 4.5 All Amendments in Writing. No waiver, amendment or modification of any provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver, amendment or modification is sought to be enforced. Furthermore, no provisions in either party's purchase orders, or in any other business forms employed by either party will supersede the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

- All notices between the parties must be in writing and either delivered in person or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.
- 4.6 Notices. Any notice required or permitted by this Agreement shall be deemed given if sent by registered mail, postage prepaid with return receipt requested, addressed to the other party at the address set forth in the preamble of this Agreement or at such other address for which such party gives notice hereunder. Delivery shall be deemed effective three (3) days after deposit with postal authorities.
- In the event of a lawsuit or any legal proceeding involving this Agreement, the losing party will have to pay the winning party his or her costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees.
- 4.7 Costs of Legal Action. In the event any action is brought to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its costs of enforcement including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and court costs.
- Legal remedies, i.e., more damages, may not be sufficient; therefore, both parties agree to equitable remedies such an injunction where the breaching party would be required to do or not to do something.
- 4.8 Inadequate Legal Remedy. Both parties understand and acknowledge that violation of their respective covenants and Agreements may cause the other irreparable harm and damage, that may not be recovered at law, and each agrees that the other's remedies for breach may be in equity by way of injunctive relief, as well as for damages and any other relief available to the non-breaching party, whether in law or in equity.
- Assuming the parties wish to use Arbitration in the event of a dispute, the following section should be included. You take your chances with an arbitrator, but it keeps legal costs down and keeps you out of a drawn out legal process.
- 4.9 Arbitration. Any dispute relating to the interpretation or performance of this Agreement shall be resolved at the request of either party through binding arbitration. Arbitration shall be conducted in [County], [State] in accordance with the then-existing rules of the American Arbitration Association. Judgment upon any award by the arbitrators may be entered by any state or federal court having jurisdiction. Both parties intend that this Agreement to arbitrate be irrevocable.
- Merely delaying to bring an action that one party has a right to bring does not cause that party to lose or waive his right to pursue that action.
- 4.10 Delay is Not a Waiver. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right, power or remedy under this Agreement, except as specifically provided in this Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of any such right, power or remedy.
- Neither party will be blamed if there is a problem resulting from something beyond its control, such as an earthquake, flood, war.
- 4.11 Force Majeure. In the event that either party is unable to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or to enjoy any of its benefits because of any Act of God, strike, fire, flood, governmental acts, orders or restrictions, Internet system unavailability, system malfunctions or any other reason where failure to perform is beyond the reasonable control and not caused by the negligence of the non-performing party (a "Force Majeure Event"), the party who has been so affected shall give notice immediately to the other party and shall use its reasonable best efforts to resume performance. Failure to meet due dates resulting from a Force Majeure Event shall extend such due dates for a reasonable period.

However, if the period of nonperformance exceeds sixty (60) days from the receipt of notice of the Force Majeure Event, the party whose ability to perform has not been affected may, by giving written notice, terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon such notice or at such later date as is therein specified.

- If any part of this Agreement is unenforceable or invalid, the balance of the Agreement should still be enforced. Basically, ignore any sections that are invalid.
- 4.12 Severability. If any provisions of this Agreement are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, they are to that extent to be deemed omitted and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
- The headings of the various sections are meant to explain or otherwise give meaning to those sections; they are for convenience only.
- 4.13 Cumulative Rights. Any specific right or remedy provided in this Agreement will not be exclusive but will be cumulative upon all other rights and remedies described in this section and allowed under applicable law.
- 4.14 Headings. The titles and headings of the various sections and sections in this Agreement are intended solely for convenient of reference and are not intended for any other purpose whatsoever, or to explain, modify or place any convenient of the provisions of this Agreement.
- Every copy shall be just as valid as the original.
- 4.15 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, any one of which will be considered an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.
- Even after the termination of the Agreement, the parties may still have certain responsibilities such as keeping information confidential.
- 4.16 Survival of Certain Provisions. The warranties and the indemnification and confidentiality obligations set forth in the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement by either party for any reason.
